

TPNexus™ Peer Network

The professional online network
for the retail industry

Get connected with the only private, secure online network dedicated to trading partner relationships.

Why Join TPNexus™?

VCF and TPMA, the leading organizations fostering trading partner collaboration and retailer-supplier synchronization, are now launching a private, secure online community to further foster communication, trust, and business intelligence.

TPNexus™ is the only online network within which you can manage trading partner relationships and participate in professional communities of practice.

- Network and share best practices with peers within supplier/retailer communities;
- Find companies and professionals who have experience working with the same customers or suppliers as you;
- Join VCF and TPMA Communities of Practice which offer collaborative best practices, new strategies, thought leadership, and networking opportunities for professionals.

How Do I Use TPNexus™?

TPNexus™ is open only to members of VCF and TPMA. Below are just a few of the features TPNexus™ will offer:

My Profile

Update your profile with your photograph, professional details and more.

My Contacts

With TPNexus™, you can “friend” colleagues, communicate with them, invite them to meetings and events.

My Messages

Create and send messages to your contacts. Let your colleagues know about that great new research report you’ve just posted to the network. Invite them to a meeting or event.

My Meetings

View your scheduled meetings or create a meeting of your own, invite participants and track responses.

TPNexus™ Blog

Designed to bring to light new ideas at the nexus of the trading partner relationship, we encourage everyone to contribute!

Look for an email from VCF and TPMA
so you can create your profile and update your information to join our on-line community.
